

Terms and conditions

Please read these terms carefully. Using this site indicates that you accept these terms. If you do not accept these terms, please do not use this online application system.

This notice may be revised at any time by updating this page. Please check and review the terms and conditions from time to time because they are binding on you.

In these terms and conditions, 'the Society', 'we', 'us' and 'our' refer to Newbury Building Society; 'you' and 'your' refer to the Intermediary. An Intermediary means any person introducing business to us in accordance with these terms.

The relationship

We reserve the right to refuse all or any business from any Intermediary and we are not required to give a reason to do so.

The principles of Treating Customers Fairly must be upheld at all times by both parties. You should retain sufficient records to ensure the choice of lender is unbiased and that you have acted in the best interests of the customer at all times.

You warrant and represent that you are the agent of the applicant and have the authority to act on behalf of the applicant.

You will notify us immediately if:

- any permissions are withdrawn or at risk of being withdrawn;
- you or your firm are subject to an investigation for a breach of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other relevant laws;
- your registration with the FCA is terminated or there is an investigation by any regulatory body; or
- you cease to act on behalf of the applicant(s).

Data protection

1. These terms and conditions set out the framework for the sharing of Personal Data between the Parties as Data Controllers and define the principles and procedures that the Parties shall adhere to and the responsibilities the Parties owe to each other.
2. Newbury Building Society's Privacy Notice sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be treated. To view the latest version of the Privacy Notice, please go to <https://www.newbury.co.uk/privacy-notice/>
3. This Agreement is required to ensure that where Personal Data may be accessed, such access will at all times comply with the requirements of the Data Protection Laws. Each Party shall, as a Data Controller, remain responsible for ensuring that all processing of the Shared Personal Data is in compliance with all applicable Data Protection Laws.
4. The sharing of Personal Data is necessary to support the following Agreed Purposes of both Parties:
 - a. processing necessary to perform our contract for the mortgage product or for taking steps prior to entering into it (during the application stage);
 - b. processing with the consent of the data subject;
 - c. where we consider that, on balance, it is appropriate for us to do so, processing necessary for the certain legitimate interests which apply to us; and
5. The Parties agree that:
 - a. this Agreement formalises a lawful transfer of Personal Data between the Parties and presents no new or additional privacy concerns;
 - b. a risk assessment has been conducted in respect of the Personal Data to be shared and the necessity of the sharing.
6. For the purposes of the Agreed Purposes as listed in point 4 above, Personal Data may be shared between the Parties during the Term. Such data may be grouped as follows: Identification; Financial; Credit history; Residence; Contact; Employment; Transactional; Contractual; Social Relationships; Guarantor(s); Documentary; and Consents.
7. Each Party shall ensure that it processes the Shared Personal Data fairly and lawfully in accordance with the Data Protection Laws during the Term of this Agreement.
8. The Data Discloser shall ensure that Shared Personal Data is accurate.
9. Where either Party becomes aware of inaccuracies in Shared Personal Data, they will notify the other Party as soon as reasonably possible thereof.
10. The Parties shall not retain Shared Personal Data for longer than any statutory or professional retention periods applicable to the Shared Personal Data.
11. The Parties shall implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures which ensure against: (i) unauthorised access to; (ii) unauthorised or unlawful alteration, disclosure, destruction or other unauthorised or unlawful processing of; (iii) accidental loss or destruction of; or (iv) damage to, the Shared Personal Data.
12. Each Party shall notify the other of any potential or actual Data Security Breach as soon as possible and, in any event, within 1 Business Day of identification of any Data Security Breach to enable the Parties to consider what action is required in order to resolve the issue in accordance with the Data Protection Laws.
13. The Parties agree to provide reasonable assistance as is necessary to each other to facilitate the handling of any Data Security Breach in an expeditious and compliant manner.
14. Each Party shall notify the other promptly (and in any event within 2 Business Days) following its receipt of any Regulator Correspondence, which relates directly or indirectly to the Processing of the Personal Data under this Agreement or to either Party's compliance with the Data Protection Laws, and shall provide a copy of such Regulator Correspondence to the other Party and reasonable details of circumstances giving rise to it.
15. In the event of a dispute or claim brought by a Data Subject or the Data Protection Authority concerning the processing of Shared Personal Data against either or both Parties, the Parties will inform each other about any such disputes or claims, and will cooperate with a view to settling them amicably in a timely fashion.
16. Where the mortgage intermediary contacts Newbury Building Society regarding a lending in principle decision and provides personal data which identifies the data subject, the intermediary agrees that it will advise its customer of the contact with Newbury Building Society and confirm to the customer that Newbury Building Society's privacy notice is available at <https://www.newbury.co.uk/privacy-notice/>.
